

Webinar Date: April 18, 2023

Engaging across differences: Constructive dialogue for civic health PRESENTER BIOSKETCH

Caroline Mehl
Co-Founder and Executive Director
Constructive Dialogue Institute

Caroline Mehl is the Co-Founder and Executive Director of The Constructive Dialogue Institute. She has expertise in translating psychological research into innovative real-world applications. In her role, Caroline advises workplaces, universities, philanthropists, and communities on how to create more open and inclusive cultures.

Caroline began her career at the private equity firm Blackstone, where she was involved in the firm's inaugural Tactical Opportunities fund. She has experience in venture capital, social entrepreneurship, and venture philanthropy. Previously, Caroline was an Associate Research Scholar at New York University's Stern School of Business. She is currently a Visiting Scholar at NYU-Stern.

Caroline received her bachelor's degree from Yale and her master's degree from Oxford as a Blavatnik Foundation Scholar.

Caroline has been featured and quoted in Oprah Magazine, Time Magazine, and The Stoa Podcast.