Highlighted Guidance

Racism as a Public Health Crisis: Three Responses is a compilation of stories and strategies from the City of Minneapolis, Milwaukee County, and State of Nevada highlighting steps toward addressing racism as a root cause of health inequities.

CHR&R offers online Action Learning Guides to help communities Promote Health and Equity. The guides cover topics including Introduction to Equity, Understand and Identify Root Causes of Inequities, and Develop Strategies to Promote Health & Equity.

Racial healing can facilitate trust and build authentic relationships that bridge divides created by real and perceived differences. Talking about Racism, Racial Equity and Racial Healing with Friends, Family, Colleagues and Neighbors includes conversation guidelines and additional resources from The W.K. Kellogg Foundation. Even more resources can be found at The National Day of Racial Healing website.

The Reckoning with Race Curriculum from Living Cities builds racial equity competencies through deep learning, discussion, and practice. It includes seven modules with resources, discussion questions, and sample workshop agendas.

The vision for the W.K. Kellogg Foundation's Truth, Racial Healing & Transformation Implementation Guidebook is to improve our capacity as communities and as a country to shape a more equitable future with opportunities for every child to thrive.
