

WEBINAR GUEST BIO

Public health approaches to policing and incarceration

August 13, 2024

Christine Mitchell
Program director
Health Instead of Punishment Program
Human Impact Partners

Christine Mitchell is the program director of the Health Instead of Punishment program at Human Impact Partners, a national public health nonprofit headquartered in Berkeley, California. She is an organizer with the Boston-based DeeperThanWater Coalition and a co-author of the American Public Health Association policy statements on law enforcement violence and carceral systems. She has a Master of Divinity from Harvard Divinity School and a Doctor of Science in social and behavioral science from Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health.

Mark Rice
Wisconsin Transformational Justice Campaign coordinator
WISDOM

Mark Rice serves as the Wisconsin Transformational Justice Campaign Coordinator at WISDOM. Much of his work over the last 10 years has focused on overhauling the carceral system and building the power of organizations led by people who have been impacted by this system. Mark also serves as a member of three national steering committees that aim to fundamentally transform the criminal legal system.

Mark earned master's degrees in urban studies and nonprofit management and leadership from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee. In 2016, he received the Distinguished Leadership Award from MICA (Milwaukee Inner-city Congregations Allied for Hope) and a Certificate of Special Congressional Recognition from U.S. Congresswoman Gwen Moore for his outstanding and committed work to end mass incarceration. Follow Mark on X @ricemark.